As-salamu alaikum – may the Peace of Allah be on you.

The Association of Muslim Lawyers (UK) – AML – invites all of its members to attend the AML Annual General Meeting for 2007. This event will take place insh'Allah at Clifford Chance, 10 Upper Bank Street, Canary Wharf, London E14 5JJ on Tuesday the 3rd of April 2007.

As well as AML's current members, all Muslim students, lawyers and members of the judiciary who are interested in joining AML or supporting the activities of AML are also most welcome.

At the AGM the members of the AML executive committee will present their annual reports and invite more participation in organising and running AML activities and events in 2007. The last twelve months have been busy and there is much to summarise – and much which is still to be done.

There will also be a talk, insh'Allah, by Sarah Joseph, the editor of EMEL magazine, who is well known for her incisive and well informed observations on the issues which face all of us.

There will be a short break for salat'ul-maghrib immediately after Sarah Joseph's talk followed by an opportunity to meet each other.

AML invites all of its current and prospective members to come and enjoy this evening.

Confirmation of attendance is essential :
